

LGGS ALUMNAE

Welcome to the first edition of our Old Girls' Newsletter. The Newsletter is a chance to find out what other Old Girls have been doing since leaving LGGS, what is happening at school now and we hope that you will use the Newsletter to reminisce about your school days. Lucy Housden has done a fantastic job in updating our database of old girls and producing this NEWSLETTER.

You can contact Lucy at alumnae@lggs.lancs.sch.uk

I have been Headteacher at LGGS for almost four terms. I know I am very fortunate to be Head of such a wonderful school. Replacing Mrs Pam Barber was not an easy task. She was an outstanding Headteacher and transformed the school in her twenty years of headship. One of the highlights of last year was our Speech Day when Pam returned as our guest speaker.

Other highlights from last year included the visit of HRH the Duke of Gloucester as part of his official visit to Lancashire. His Royal Highness was accompanied by a number of Lancashire dignitaries including the Lord Lieutenant Lord Shuttleworth. After lunch and a tour of the school, His Royal Highness formally opened the Centenary Hall.

I am sure many of you will be pleased to hear that we are still continuing our International links at LGGS. Last summer saw two very successful World Challenge expeditions to Madagascar. This term LGGS pupils have participated in visits to Germany, India and Japan. A new initiative was a two week visit to China by a group of sixth form students and staff. This very successful visit included a week at Language school and a home stay with Chinese families. Mandarin Chinese is now taught at LGGS as an option for sixth formers and an after school class for Years 7 and 8. I am sure some of you will be interested to hear that Latin is being offered again at LGGS. We are running a very popular after school group for Year 8 pupils.

I look forward to keeping you up to date with events at LGGS in future newsletters.

You might be interested to know that currently ten members of staff are former pupils of the school. They include myself, Lucy Housden (left 1995). I am now running the alumnae administration. In addition to keeping the database up to date, I am going to be writing a quarterly newsletter to all old girls for whom I have contact details. In this newsletter I should like to include a section sharing information that I have received from you. Anything you want to send me which might be of interest to other old girls, please email to:
alumnae@lggs.lancs.sch.uk.

The more news you send in, the more exciting the newsletter!

If you have any friends who you suspect I have no contact details for, please urge them to get in touch with me at the email address above.
