TIMETABLE OF EVENTS

International week is an exciting week where lunchtimes are packed full of international activities. Below is an overview of events as and when they are happening.

Points to note:

- All events are for all year groups, unless otherwise stated.
- For every event in which you are involved, you gain a sticker to be kept on the back of this passport. If you are in years 7-11 you can convert your stickers to merits.
- Read pages 3-7 for details of rooms.
- The sixth form committee will be on hand to answer your questions and mark your booklets. You will be able to identify them by their international week badges.

MONDAY 26TH SEPTEMBER
INTERNATIONAL FOOD FAIR
CENTENARY HALL & MAIN HALL

We will be kick-starting the week with the International Food Fair.

You can either make a traditional dish from a foreign country, create country food stall with a group of friends or simply sample the cuisine!

If you are running a food stall, why not dress in traditional costume? Parents who cook the special cuisine are also welcome to come in and help to run the stalls.

Entrance to the food fair costs £1. You'll be given a plate and a fork and you can sample food to your heart's content.

BRAINTEASER

Can you decipher the message on the front of this booklet? If you think you know what it says, write it out here and hand your booklet to one of the Dream Team for checking!

THURSDAY PERIODS 7-10: YEAR 9
FOREIGN FILM

You will have the option of seeing one of two foreign films, played in their original languages and subtitled in English. Below is a resumé of both films to help you to decide which one to see. Please note the venues and the start times. Both films are quite long, thus you need to go to your venue for the start of registration. Take your seats by 13:15

Film: Spirited Away Start time: 13:20 Venue: Centenary Hall

Language: Japanese with English subtitles
 Year released: 2003 Director: Miyazaki
 Genre: Animation
 Awards: Oscar (Best Animated Feature), plus 35 other international awards and 19 nominations.

Synopsis: Chihiro, a 10-year-old girl in the midst of a move to the suburbs with her parents, wanders into a mysterious town. It's the "other world" of gods and monsters, ruled over by a witch. There, humans are changed into animals and disappear. Chihiro, who has a listless disposition, must start working at a huge bath house to survive. Can she return to her own world?

"In two hours Miyazaki offers more magic and innovation than most animators could manage in over two decades".

"Japanese animé at its finest, Spirited Away is guaranteed to delight hardcore devotees, and those who've yet to make an acquaintance with the best that the East has to offer. See it and marvel." (BBC movies website)

Film: Paheli Start time: 13:15 Venue: Hall

Language: Hindi with English subtitles
 Year released: 2005 Director: Amol Palekar

Genre: Fantasy / Folk / Romance
 Awards: 2 wins and 5 nominations

Synopsis: Lachchi is distraught when her new husband Kishen leaves her the morning after their wedding under the instruction of his greedy father. More interested in making a fortune than making love to his wife, Kishen goes off for five years leaving a love struck ghost to take his place. In today's age that would be grounds for divorce, but in 19th-century Rajasthan, a loving, albeit paranormal, husband is apparently a blessing in disguise. When the real Kishen returns, confusion arises. How will the riddle or "Paheli" of the two Kishanlals be solved? "Paheli is a breathtaking dream"

"Watching Paheli is quite an experience, and it's from the very opening shot of the film that its sheer, magical palette overwhelms us." (rediff.com/movies)

FILM REVIEW COMPETITION: Write a short review of the film once you have seen it. You can do this in ANY LANGUAGE YOU PREFER, but of course, extra credit for effort in a foreign language. Hand your review to a member of the sixth form languages committee (they are all wearing a foreign badge!) for your stickers or e-mail your review to k.whitehouse@lggs.lancs.sch.uk. The best review will receive a cinematic prize.
