

The National Theatre Youth Connections Programme

We are delighted at their success and recognise their outstanding achievement and that of the dedicated Creative Learning Team, the Duke's Theatre, Lancaster.

We would like to congratulate OUR PUPILS ON THEIR SUCCESS IN THE National Theatre Youth Connections Programme. The work in preparation for this competition has all been done at the Duke's Theatre, Lancaster. The girls tell their story.

"We are from the Duke's Senior Youth Theatre, and we took part in the National Theatre's New Connections programme. After performing at the Duke's Theatre 3 (DT3) in Lancaster, we performed at the Brewery Arts Centre in Kendal. We were then told that we had been selected to represent the North West at the National Theatre, having beaten four hundred other Youth Theatres in the same programme. We will be performing "The Things She Sees" by Ben Power on July 3rd at the Cottleshoe Theatre, which will be directed by Louise Ingham".

Mrs H Tozer Head of Drama and Theatre