

Guys & Dolls come to town ... Grand Theatre ...

Lancaster gets a taste of Broadway next week as the Grand Theatre puts on a show of the classic 1940s musical Guys and Dolls.

This joint production by pupils from Lancaster Royal Grammar School and Lancaster Girls' Grammar School tells the story of a group of small time New York gamblers and the women in their lives. Nathan Detroit bets his pal Sky Masterton that he can't make the next lady he sees fall in love with him and when the next 'doll' happens to be the prim and proper neighbourhood missionary, Sarah Brown, the stage is set for an evening of high spirited entertainment, set to the toe-tapping beat of Frank Loesser's score.

With show stopping numbers, such as 'Luck Be a Lady', 'Sit Down, You're Rockin' the Boat' and of course the wonderful title song 'Guys and Dolls', this promises to be a highly entertaining evening for all the family.

The show runs from Tuesday 17 to Friday 20 March at 7.30 pm at the Grand Theatre, St Leonards Gate. Adults £9, concessions £6.
